CONTRACT BROKEN

So Claims Charleroi Man in Suit Against Macbeth Evans.

Before Judge J. A. Mollvaine is being tried the suit of Henry Johnson against the Macbeth-Evans Glass company of Charleroi, to recover a claim of $112.75. The plaintiff was employed by the defendant company under a five year contract by which ten per cent. of his wages was retained to protect the company should the plaintiff quit before the term of the contract had expired.

It is averred that Johnson quit the company, without notice and in violation of his agreement, after working nine months. The company held out the ten per cent. of wages retained, according to the contract and for this amount the plaintiff seeks to recover. The plaintiff claims that he did not receive union wages as agreed and the company unjustly "docked him" for alleged defective work.

The case reaches court through an appeal by the defendant company from the judgment of a justice of the peace in favor of the plaintiff.

SECOND-COURSE ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAY NIGHT

Friday night Dr. Edward T. Hageman, popular lecturer, will appear at the School Hall in the second number of the Citizens' Entertainment course, and a large and appreciative audience is expected to be present. Dr. Hageman has some fine testimonials, some of which have come from England, people who heard him once. His subject will probably be "The Power and the Clay," a lecture which he has given in many places and which everywhere produced a profound impression. The last time he was here which was three years ago, Dr. Hageman spoke on "The World We Live In." This lecture was said to be one of the best ever heard in Charleroi.

SOLLY AND GRIM HAVE A GOOD GO

Solly Stroup of Charleroi, in a preliminary before the Langford-Schneck match at Old City Hall, Pittsburg, last night, had something on Joe Grim, according to people present. The match was the best one of the evening. The Gazette Times has the following to say of the "mill":

"Solly was lily white except the face, which had a Klondike outdoor color. Martin was all dark except his face which looked scared. Solly adhered to his old-time style of fighting with tenacity, never changing his mode or attack, while Sylvie started each round with a different style. Solly may be old, but he certainly had it on Sylvie, and was cheered when he left the ring. He deserved a decision if any was allowed to be given."

GATES BEING FINISHED

Heavy Gates Put in Position—Operated by Compressed Air.

At Brownsville, the finishing work is being put on the new lock. This was employees of the War Department are at work on the power house, which will be of concrete. It will stand on the outer concrete lock wall. Work is continuing on another section of the double concrete lock. The lock gates were put in last week by the Keesport Steel company, they being held back somewhat on the work by a rise in the river. There are ten gates in all, the entire number containing 300 tons of steel and 25,000 rivets. They span 56 feet between the walls of the first lock and 60 between those of the second and larger lock. When ready, these gates are to be operated by compressed air. The machinery employed in operating this lock is installed by the Government. Each of the locks is 360 feet from gate to gate. The outside wall of the outer gate is nearly 600 feet long, and the other walls are about 500 feet in length.

ODD FELLOWS WILL BE ENTERTAINED BY MONESSEN LODGE

The evening the Valley Picnic Association of the I. O. O. F. will visit the Monessen lodge, which has arranged to entertain. The lodges to be entertained are Charleroi, Collins, and Monessen. The Monessen lodge has made elaborate preparations. There will be good speakers present and the evening will be devoted to promoting sociability and a general good fellowship among these fraternal societies.

WATER SCARCE AT THE COUNTY HOME

The scarcity of the water supply at the county home at Arden has caused considerable alarm. Should a fire break out at the present time the buildings would be doomed. The directors of the home are considering some immediate action to replenish the water supply, but it is now known just what steps will be taken. Superintendent John Quivey stated that the supply had been almost exhausted in the large reservoir and unless rain fell within the next few days the supply would be entirely exhausted. What little is on hand is being guarded very closely for fear a fire may break out.

The lines of the Citizens Water company of Washington are not close enough to the home to supply the demand and in order that the supply may be increased it is likely that several wells will have to be drilled within the vicinity of the home and pumps started to fill the reservoir on top of the hill above the home.

The rain of Monday night was of some effect, but very little good was realized from it, it was so slight.

Proposals for Filing Approaches to Bridge.

Proposals will be received by the County Controller until Monday, November 29th, 1909, at 1 o'clock p. m. for the filling of two approaches to the Maple Creek bridge near Charleroi, requiring 1,000 cubic yards of earth or rock more or less.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

JOHN H. MOFFITT, County Controller.

Borough May Build Works.

In an opinion handed down by Judge Schafer at Pittsburg yesterday the borough of Tarentum is granted the right to build water works of its own. The Tarentum Water company tried to prevent the borough from erecting its own water plant. There has been considerable trouble at that place over the water, a fight now being on to get lower rates.

Thanksgiving.

In accordance with the National custom industry and business generally will take a day off tomorrow and presumably give thanks for the many blessings we enjoy. While the observance of this holiday is marked with the appearance of levity to a greater or less degree, there is scarcely a person, when pinned down to a frank acknowledgement, but what must admit that he has much to be thankful for. If he is alive and healthy, he has nothing to fear in this land of opportunity. That of itself is sufficient cause for thanksgiving.

But this is not all. We have more to be thankful for than our mere animal existence. While it is true that we are solving the problems of civilization slowly and painfully, with many apparent relapses, it will be found that the pendulum of progress is swinging out a little farther each year. As a nation and a people we have many sins, and omissions to correct, but we are making progress. In all civilized countries it must be remembered that popular intelligence is always considerably in advance of public practice. It is the reconciliation of these that constitutes the problem, which is happily getting nearer a solution each decade. It is therefore eminently proper that we appreciate the opportunity we have for doing good, and make further resolves along that line when we take stock of our resources and imitations to-morrow.

Too Much Pleasure.

Notwithstanding increased business activity, renewed and continuous operation of mills and mines, and the blessings of bountiful crops, complaints about the high cost of living are universal. This condition is made a basis for continued demands for higher wages, and this unsettled condition in a measure is hampering industry and business generally.

Henry Clews, the veteran New York financier, whose opinion on material conditions is considered authority, says the phenomenal high level in the cost of living is mostly due to personal extravagance and unnecessary amusements and luxuries in the home, rather than in business. This, he says, has become a National weakness with the people, until incomes will not reach around the circle of tradesmen and include the amusements that are now thought to be necessary in the homes. Luxuries and amusements that ten years ago were not thought of, are now a part of the every day life of the people, which are diminishing right along the National saving power from which should come reserves of new capital. Combinations are restricting competition and speculation is inflating values, which is only adding fuel to fire.

Mr. Clews sees nothing in sight to check this great advance of prices

until the purchasing power of the consumers as a whole is entirely exhausted. As others are constantly filling the ranks of those who go down in the mad race to keep up with the procession of extravagance, the deluge will not come in the immediate future.

A Definite Policy.

Dispatches from Washington say that at the annual meeting of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress there next month an effort will be made to secure the adoption by Congress of a definite policy of appropriations for river and harbor purposes. It will be urged that annual appropriations of about $50,000,000 be made or that a bond issue for $500,000,000 or $600,000,000 be authorized, sufficient to pay for carrying out the projects that have already been approved by the Committee on Rivers and Harbors. Considerable progress has already been made by this organization towards securing a permanent program for Congress and it is hoped that in the near future the accomplishment of the plan will be reached.

If either of these propositions is adopted by Congress it will mean the completion of the Ohio River project within six or seven years. The estimated cost of canalizing the Ohio from Pittsburg to Cairo is about $63,000,000 and it now receives a comparatively small amount every three years. At the present rate it will be many a year before the project is completed.

Down about Pittsburg and along the Ohio river local delegations are preparing to lay before this congress, as well as to impress upon the National Congress, the importance of this policy. Thus far none of the upper Monongahela river towns have made an effort in this direction, yet the Ohio policy is the greatest direct benefit that the National Government can bestow upon this section. It is not too late yet to make an effort in this direction.

ELETRIC SPARKS

When people ask how a man earns his salary, it is generally from an honest desire to know.

Howard Chandler Christy says too much society is to blame for many of his mistakes. He is a consideration of an attack on the paid society?

Here's a progressive fellow. After divorcing his wife, he is trying to secure damages from her. Probably for the reason that his wife at one time pulled his hair.

But the most of the writers of love sick advice to the love-lorn and so forth, are either divorced women, or marriageable young men.

Wonder if the Charleroi Jack Johnson could by any means of the compass claim relationship to his famous namesake?

Talk about being thankful. What should the football players who have escaped injury throughout the season be?

One convenient thing about the discovery of the North Pole by either Cook or Peary, is that it only instills a desire in the hearts of some others to find the South Pole and that means the loss of more lives.

Being a real sure-nough actor isn't the fun that it is cracked up to be. It occasionally means hard work and slow pay.

To those who contemplate suicide at this time, it will be well to advise against drowning. You might get cold.

The Black Hand who demands $500 on penalty of death, wants to make the cost of living ridiculously high.

Up near Kittanning where they complain of high prices on gas, etc. the gas company is now charged with pumping air into the lines. That would make bum fuel for the general run of people, but some fellows can burn a whole lot of air.

The man who is spending as much as he can earn shouldn't feel so badly, because there are a lot of others spending more than they earn.

We Started a Good Many People with our Heater Offer Did You Read It?

We put some statements about heating stoves down in black and white that stove users never heard before. We want to repeat them! Remember, we are backed up by one of the grandest stove manufacturing concerns in the world—yes, backed by a concern that makes and sells more soft coal heaters each year by three times than any other maker anywhere.

So there are millions of dollars behind what we have to say about heaters this year!

To us alone is given the right to make the most unusual guarantee ever made on a heating stove.

Cole's Hot Blast Guarantee

Here is our authority from the President of the Cole Manufacturing Co.—the strongest guarantee ever made on a heater.

"You are authorized to sell the Original Cole's Hot Blast Heater this year on the most rigid guarantee ever made by any stove manufacturer. Our guarantee to every customer of yours is—

- 1—A saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size, with soft coal, slack or lignite.
- 2—That Cole's Hot Blast will use less hard coal for heating a given space than any base burner made with same size fire pot.
- 3—That the rooms can be heated from one to two hours each morning with the soft coal or hard coal put in the stove the evening before.
- 4—That the stove will hold fire with soft coal from Saturday night until Monday morning.
- 5—A uniform heat day and night, with soft coal, hard coal or lignite.
- 6—That every stove will remain absolutely air-tight as long as used.
- 7—That the feed-door is and will remain smoke and dust-proof.

"All we ask is that the stove shall be operated according to directions and set up with a good flue."

THE ONLY WAY

Many Charleroi Citizens have Discovered It.

Just what to do when the kidneys are affected is a question that concerns both young and old. Weak kidneys neglected in childhood lead to lifelong suffering. People of advanced years, with less vitality, suffer doubly. In youth or age, languor, backache, urinary irregularity, dizziness and nervousness make life a burden. There is one remedy that acts directly on the kidneys and cures these troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills owe their world-wide fame to the fact that they cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Follow the example of this Charleroi citizen and you will be convinced that his is so. Mrs. George Ewing, 913 Shady Avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in our family for some time with the best results. We procure our supply at Piper Bros. Drug Store, and it does not take this remedy long to dispense of any attack of kidney trouble. I advise anyone troubled by disordered kidneys to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

"I'm sure my daughter is going to make a great singer some day."
"Is that so?"
"Yes; she's always quarreling with her mother, who tells me it is absolutely impossible to manage her."—Detroit Free Press.

Paid Her Back.
Mae—So you are engaged to George! I refused him three times. Ethel—That must have been what he meant when he told me that he had had several narrow escapes.—New York Journal.

When It Started.
"Captain, what time does the boat start?"
"It starts, madam, when I give the word."
"Then I've always had the wrong idea. I thought it started when the engineer pulled a lever or did something. That's you ever so much."—Chicago Tribune.

Child's Allowance.
To encourage children to save money give them as many pennies each week as they are years old and allow them to save it. When each has saved $5 put it in a bank and add to it each year. It is a very little beginning, but children with money in a real bank are very desirous of adding more to it. By the time the little folks are grown there will be a good bank account, which will be helpful during college days.

He Didn't Bet.
"A man in my county," said a Kansas congressman, "was always anxious to bet on his game of checkers. One time he was about to play a game for $10, with a fellow called Three Fingers Jack. Suddenly one of his friends exclaimed: 'Don't bet, Charlie. Don't you know that fellow wore off two fingers playing checkers? That's why he's called Three Fingers Jack.' That settled it. The bet was never made. A man who had worn off two fingers by brushing them up and down the checkerboard was too much for my friend."—Kansas City Journal.

A Bitter Disappointment.
"When I was in Paris," remarked the collector of curios, "I discovered in a bookstall a volume which I knew at first glance to be of extraordinary value. I could scarcely believe my good luck. Breathless, I inquired the price of the dealer. Just think of it! I could have had that treasure for a song!"
"Well, why didn't you get it?"
"Never could slug a note in my life," cried the collector, bursting into tears.

The Great Diamond Robbery," was the play at the Coyle Theatre last night by the Manhattan Stock company, which is filling a week's engagement here. It is a comedy drama, and the five acts are developed so skillfully that the plot becomes more interesting as it is unfolded. As "Walter Montrose," the leading masculine role in the cast, Albert S. Veas scored additional honors. His role was admirably and cleverly rendered, and brought out his power and talent as an actor. Miss Zelda Dawn sustained the part of Mary Marshall, with grace and power, and won the chief honors of the evening. Miss Birtine Farnsworth as "Polly," the maid, portrayed a sprightly and clever part that pleased the audience. All the other roles were well sustained. Tonight will be presented "Hearts of the Blue Ridge," a thrilling melodrama of the Southern mountains. A special Thanksgiving matinee will be given tomorrow in addition to the evening bill. At the matinee will be presented "The Road to Ruin," and at night "Lost on the Pacific."

Family Floriculture.
George Blank, the stage manager, is a lover of nature and a hater of overcoats and umbrellas. Recently during a violent rainstorm he called on his mother, entering her presence wringing wet.
"George," said she firmly, "you ought not to expose yourself to such weather. You will get pneumonia."
"But, mother," exclaimed George, with a theatrical wave of his hand, "why should I fear the rain? It does not nurture the grass. Is it not life to the flowers?"
"It is a long time," said the good woman, closing a window, "since we were a flower."—Saturday Star.

Mrs. Newrich was growing accustomed to power. She enjoyed it and was irritated when any one presumed to differ from her in opinion. When the sailing party of which she had been a member landed on the shores of the lake rain soaked and frightened, Mrs. Newrich was the only one who cared to talk.
"It could all have been avoided if that captain had done as I told him," she said between the chattering of her teeth as the party stood huddled under a small shelter.
"When I saw that cloud coming from that corner of the lake I said to him, 'I think you'd better make straight for home and not spend any more time tacking,' but he paid no more attention than as if I hadn't spoken!"—Youth's Companion.

When Children Smoked.
In the seventeenth century in England the practice of juvenile smoking was almost universal, at least according to Jorevin de Rochefort, a French traveler of that period. In an account published in 1671 he gives a description of an evening he spent in Worcester. He was catechized by one of the townsmen as to the habits of the French people. "While we were walking about the town," he writes, "he asked me if it was the custom in France as in England that when the children went to school they carried in their satchel with their books a pipe of tobacco, which their mother took care to fill early in the morning, it serving them instead of breakfast, and that at the accustomed hour every one laid aside his book to light his pipe, the master smoking with them and teaching them how to hold their pipes and draw in their tobacco, thus accustoming them to it from their youths, believing it absolutely necessary for a man's health."

Origin of the Word Academy.
Academy was a wealthy Greek of Athens who lived several hundred years before the birth of Christ. Among his possessions was a beautiful grove, where young men used to congregate and listen to the teachings of wise men, such as Plato and Socrates. This developed into the school of modern times, and these modern schools take their name "academy" from the old Greek Academy. The real meaning of the word academy is a school for boys.

Your Wife's Thanksgiving Present Should Be a Pair of

Red Cross Shoes

Can you imagine a more ideal shoe than one that is absolutely comfortable and is the perfection of style?

The Red Cross Shoe is both.

It is made with an idea and founded on a principle.

The idea is style and comfort in the same shoe.

The principle is to produce for American women a perfect shoe, at a price within reach and reason.

By the special Red Cross tanning process, the sole of the Red Cross Shoe instead of being stiff and rigid is made flexible, it bends with your foot. It gives you a feeling of ease and freedom you can not imagine until you have worn it.

The styles for Fall give your feet that short effect that is so attractive. Come in and try them on.

You do not have to sacrifice style to gain comfort

HANDSOME NEW BUSINESS HOUSE WILL BE ERECTED

W. B. Pfelehardt Will Build Furniture Store on Fallowfield.

TO BE FOUR STORY BRICK

Promises to be One of Most Beautiful Structures in the Entire Valley.

Plans are being completed now by Architect J. C. Brenton of Charleroi for a large business house for Charleroi, to be erected on Fallowfield avenue next to the borough building, by W. B. Pfelehardt. The contract for the excavating has already been awarded to the Charleroi Lumber company, and Mr. Brenton will be ready for bids on the construction of the structure within a few days.

The building will be a four story brick with steel structural work to extend the entire length and breadth of two lots, between Fallowfield avenue and Long alley and the Collins Wall Paper store and the borough building, in dimensions 44 by 100 feet. The building will be erected expressly for a furniture store, Mr. Pfelehardt enjoying one of the largest businesses in this line of any firm in the valley. The structure will contain an electric passenger elevator, the first for a Charleroi business house, and all modern conveniences for an up-to-date furniture store. The Roman Corinthian style of architecture will be used throughout.

On the first floor will be a mezzanine story, or balcony, the entire length and breadth of the interior. All floors will be devoted to the different departments of an up-to-date furniture store.

AUDITORS MUST GET BUSY IN SHORT TIME

The county auditors will have to get a move on in order to complete the audit of the accounts of the court house officers within the time prescribed by law. The law reads: "That upon the appointment of a controller, the county auditors then in office shall proceed to audit all accounts as is now or may hereafter be required by law and upon the filing of their report of said audit, which report must be filed not later than three months after the controller assumes his office, the said office of county auditor shall be abolished and cease to exist in said county."

Controller John H. Moffitt assumed his office on October 4, so that the auditors' report must be filed by January 4. The auditors are W. J. Anderson, C. R. Titon and J. K. Mitchel.

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES WILL HOLD BAZAR

The Ladies of the First Presbyterian church will hold a bazar at the Eldora Parlor, 419 Fallowfield avenue next Tuesday and Wednesday, November 30, and December 1. Useful and artistic gifts will be on sale. There will be five booths, representing the five senses, Tasting, Feeling, Hearing, Seeing, Smelling. There will be a special sale of water colors and hand painted china. Refreshments will be served. The proceeds of the bazar will be used for the furtherance of church work.

Rev. Harris Takes Well With Audience

Washington Avenue Presbyterian Brotherhood Holds Interesting Service.

Rev. John Royal Harris spoke at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church last night, under the auspices of the Brotherhood of that church. His address was along the thought of the power a church should exert and civic righteousness. There was a fairly good number present. Special music was furnished.

SCHOOL CHILDREN IN ENTERTAINMENT

Musical Tableau will be Given at the School Hall Tonight.

DIRECTION PROF. DANIELS

The musical tableau to be given tonight at School Hall by school children and High School students, promises to be one of the best entertainments ever given by school people in Charleroi. The affair which will be sort of a Thanksgiving patriotic sketch is under the direction of Prof. I. T. Daniels and Prof. J. E. Pentz. The tableaux are said to be especially good. The general program will be as follows:

Piano solo.
Tableau—"Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean."
Recitation—"A Little Pilgrim Maid."
Songs—Miss Nell Hopkins' school.
Tableau—"The Star Spangled Banner."
Chorus—Misses Mima Houseman's and Clara Cooper's classes.
Songs—Miss Ella Greenwood's school.

Selection—High School Choral Club.
Recitation.
Duet—"Greetings."
Tableau—"The Angels."
Selection—High School Chorus.
Recitation.
Tableau—"The Spirit of '76."
Chorus—All classes.
In the chorus, solo work will be a feature. The entire program, as briefly outlined above is one of merit. There are probably 100 or more taking part. The entertainment starts at 8:15.

CONTRACT BROKEN

So Claims Charleroi Man in Suit Against Macbeth Evans.

Before Judge J. A. McIlvaine is being tried the suit of Henry Johnson against the Macbeth-Evans Glass company of Charleroi, to recover a claim of $112.75. The plaintiff was employed by the defendant company under a five year contract by which ten per cent. of his wages was retained to protect the company should the plaintiff quit before the term of the contract had expired.

It is averred that Johnson quit the company, without notice and in violation of his agreement, after working nine months. The company held out the ten per cent. of wages retained, according to the contract and for this amount the plaintiff seeks to recover. The plaintiff claims that he did not receive union wages as agreed and the company unjustly "docked him" for alleged defective work.

The case reaches court through an appeal by the defendant company from the judgment of a justice of the peace in favor of the plaintiff.

SECOND COURSE ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAY NIGHT

Friday night Dr. Edward T. Hageman, popular lecturer, will appear at the School Hall in the second number of the Citizens' Entertainment course, and a large and appreciative audience is thought will greet him. Dr. Hageman has some fine testimonials, some of which have come from Charleroi people who heard him once. His subject will probably be "The Potter and the Clay," a lecture which he has given in many places and which everywhere produced a profound impression. The last time he was here was three years ago. Dr. Hageman spoke on "The World We Live In." This lecture was said to be one of the best ever heard in Charleroi.

SOLLY AND GRIM HAVE A GOOD GO

Solly Stroup of Charleroi, in a preliminary before the Langford-Schreck match at Old City Hall, Pittsburg, last night, had something on Joe Grim according to people present. The match was the best one of the evening. The Gazette Times has the following to say of the "mill":

"Solly was lil' white except his face, which had a kind of outdoor color. Martin was all dark except his face which looked scared. Solly adhered to his old-time style of fighting with tenacity, never changing his mode of attack, while Sylvie started each round with a different style. Solly may be old, but he certainly had it on Sylvie, and was cheered when he left the ring. He deserved a decision if any was allowed to be given."

P. H. C. Social Event

One of the social events of the season in fraternal circles is promised for the members of Charleroi Circle, No. 808 P. H. C. Friday evening. A reception, musical and literary program will be rendered. The committee on program for the circle have furnished some very pleasing features lately, and the program for Friday evening promises to be along the same pleasing line. The affair will be given under the good of the order and none but members will be admitted.

Laughs Last, Laughs Best.

The opposition Washington county papers make a lot of fun of the Hon. Charles Sumner Bentley, but the latter always has the joke on them when the election returns come in. —Covilleville Courier.

GATES BEING FINISHED

Heavy Gates Put in Position—Operated by Compressed Air.

At Brownsville the finishing work is being put on the new lock. This week employees of the War Department are at work on the power house, which will be of concrete. It will stand on the outer concrete lock wall.

Work is continuing on another section of the double concrete lock. The lock gates were put in last week by the McKeesport Steel company, they being held back somewhat on the work by a rise in the river. There are ten gates in all, the entire number containing 300 tons of steel and 25,000 rivets. They span 56 feet between the walls of the first lock and 60 between those of the second and larger lock. When ready, these gates are to be operated by compressed air. The machinery employed in operating this being installed by the Government.

Each of the locks is 360 feet from gate to gate. The outside wall of the outer gate is nearly 600 feet long, and the other walls are about 500 feet in length.

ODD FELLOWS WILL BE ENTERTAINED BY MONESSEN LODGE

This evening the Valley Picnic Association of the I. O. O. F. will visit the Monessen lodge, which has arranged to entertain. The lodges in the association are Charleroi, California, Monessen, Monaca, Belle Vernon, Allentown, Vesta and Monongahela.

The Monessen lodge has made elaborate preparations. There will be good speakers present and the evening will be devoted to promoting sociality and a general good fellowship among these fraternal societies.

WATER SCARCE AT THE COUNTY HOME

The scarcity of the water supply at the county home at Arden has caused considerable alarm. Should a fire break out at the present time the buildings would be doomed. The directors of the poor are considering some immediate action to replenish the water supply, but it is now known just what steps will be taken. Superintendent John Quivey stated that the supply had been almost exhausted in the large reservoir and unless rain fell within the next few days the supply would be entirely exhausted. What little is on hand is being guarded very closely for fear a fire may break out.

The lines of the Citizens Water company of Washington are not close enough to the home to supply the demand and in order that the supply may be increased it is likely that several wells will have to be drilled within the vicinity of the home and pumps started to fill the reservoir on top of the hill above the home.

The rain of Monday night was of some effect, but very little good was realized from it, it was so slight.

Proposals for Filing Approaches to Bridge.

Proposals will be received by the County Controller until Monday, November 29th, 1909, at 1 o'clock p. m. for the filing of two approaches to the Maple Creek bridge near Charleroi, requiring 1,000 cubic yards of earth or rock more or less.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

JOHN H. MOFFITT, County Controller.

Borough May Build Works.

In an opinion handed down by Judge Schafer at Pittsburg yesterday, the borough of Tarentum is granted the right to build water works of its own. The Tarentum Water company tried to prevent the borough from erecting its own water plant. There has been considerable trouble at that place over the water, a fight now being on to get lower rates.

BARACCAS SECURE A GOOD SPEAKER

The Baracca Bible school class of the First Christian church have secured the services of Rev. J. Walter Carpenter of Uniontown to give the address at a meeting of the class next Tuesday evening. A luncheon has been arranged for, and the Anchor class will be the guests of honor. The members of the Baracca class will prepare the lunch and do the serving.

Rev. Carpenter, who will address the meeting is one of the most widely known Bible school workers in Pennsylvania. His work is very practical as he has had the experience of building up the largest Bible school in this section of the State.

Thanksgiving.

In accordance with the National custom industry and business generally will take a day off tomorrow and presumably give thanks for the many blessings we enjoy. While the observance of this holiday is marked with the appearance of levity to a greater or less degree, there is scarcely a person, when pinned down to a frank acknowledgment, but what must admit that he has much to be thankful for. If he is alive and healthy, he has nothing to fear in this land of opportunity. That of itself is sufficient cause for thanksgiving.

But this is not all. We have more to be thankful for than our mere animal existence. While it is true that we are solving the problems of civilization slowly and painfully, with many apparent relapses, it will be found that the pendulum of progress is swinging out a little farther each year. As a nation and a people we have many sins, and omissions to correct, but we are making progress. In all civilized countries it must be remembered that popular intelligence is always considerably in advance of public practice. It is the reconciliation of these that constitutes the problem, which is happily getting nearer a solution each decade. It is therefore eminently proper that we appreciate the opportunity we have for doing good, and make further resolves along that line when we take stock of our resources and imitations tomorrow.

Too Much Pleasure.

Notwithstanding increased business activity, renewed and continuous operation of mills and mines, and the blessings of bountiful crops, complaints about the high cost of living are universal. This condition is made a basis for continued demands for higher wages, and this unsettled condition in a measure is hampering industry and business generally.

Henry Clews, the veteran New York financier, whose opinion on material conditions is considered authority, says the phenomenal high level in the cost of living is mostly due to personal extravagance and unnecessary amusements and luxuries in the home, rather than in business. This, he says, has become a national weakness with the people, until incomes will not reach around the circle of tradesmen and include the amusements that are now thought to be necessary in the homes. Luxuries and amusements that ten years ago were not thought of, are now a part of the every day life of the people, which are diminishing right along the National saving power from which should come reserves of new capital. Combinations are restricting competition and speculation is inflating values which is only adding fuel to fire.

Mr. Clews sees nothing in sight to check this great advance of prices

until the purchasing power of the consumers as a whole is entirely exhausted. As others are constantly filling the ranks of those who go down in the mad race to keep up with the procession of extravagance, the deluge will not come in the immediate future.

A Definite Policy.

Dispatches from Washington say that at the annual meeting of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress there next month an effort will be made to secure the adoption by Congress of a definite policy of appropriations for river and harbor purposes. It will be urged that annual appropriations of about $50,000,000 be made or that a bond issue for $500,000,000 or $600,000,000 be authorized, sufficient to pay for carrying out the projects that have already been approved by the Committee on Rivers and Harbors. Considerable progress has already been made by this organization towards securing a permanent program for Congress and it is hoped that in the near future the accomplishment of the plan will be reached.

If either of these propositions is adopted by Congress it will mean the completion of the Ohio River project within six or seven years. The estimated cost of canalizing the Ohio from Pittsburg to Cairo is about $63,000,000 and it now receives a comparatively small amount every three years. At the present rate it will be many a year before the project is completed.

Down about Pittsburg and along the Ohio river local delegations are preparing to lay before this congress, as well as to impress upon the National Congress, the importance of this policy. Thus far none of the upper Monongahela river towns have made an effort in this direction, yet the Ohio policy is the greatest direct benefit that the National Government can bestow upon this section. It is not too late yet to make an effort in this direction.

ELETRIC SPARKS

When people ask how a man earns his salary, it is generally from an honest desire to know.

Howard Chandler Christy says too much society is to blame for many of his troubles. Is this to be considered an attack on the said society?

Here's a progressive fellow. After divorcing his wife, he is trying to secure damages from her. Probably for the reason that his wife at one time pulled his hair.

But the most of the writers of love sick advice to the love-torn and so forth, are either divorced women, or marriageable young men.

Wonder if the Charleroi Jack Johnson could by any means of the compass claim relationship to his famous namesake?

Talk about being thankful. What should the football players who have escaped injury throughout the season be?

One convenient thing about the discovery of the North Pole by either Cook or Peary, is that it only instills a desire in the hearts of some others to find the South Pole and that means the loss of more lives.

Being a real sure'nough actor isn't the fun that it is cracked up to be. It occasionally means hard work and sleep.

To those who contemplate suicide at this time, it will be well to advise against drowning. You might get cold.

The Black Hand who demands $500 on penalty of death, wants to make the cost of living ridiculously high.

Up near Kittanning where they complain of high prices on gas, etc. the gas company is now charged with pumping air into the lines. That would make bum fuel for the general run of people, but some fellows can burn a whole lot of air.

The man who is spending as much as he can earn shouldn't feel so badly, because there are a lot of others spending more than they earn.

We Startled a Good Many People with our Heater Offer Did You Read It?

We put some statements about heating stoves down in black and white that stove users never heard before. We want to repeat them! Remember, we are backed up by one of the grandest stove manufacturing concerns in the world—yes, backed by a concern that makes and sells more soft coal heaters each year by three times than any other maker anywhere.

So there are millions of dollars behind what we have to say about heaters this year!

To us alone is given the right to make the most unusual guarantee ever made on a heating stove.

Cole's Hot Blast Guarantee

Here is our authority from the President of the Cole Manufacturing Co.—the strongest guarantee ever made on a heater.

"You are authorized to sell the Original Cole's Hot Blast Heater this year on the most rigid guarantee ever made by any stove manufacturer. Our guarantee to every customer of yours is—

- "1—A saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size, with soft coal, slack or lignite.
- "2—That Cole's Hot Blast will use less hard coal for heating a given space than any base burner made with same size fire pot.
- "3—That the stove will hold fire with soft coal from Saturday night until Monday morning.
- "4—A uniform heat day and night, with soft coal, hard coal or lignite.
- "5—That every stove will remain absolutely air-tight as long as used.
- "6—That the feed-door is and will remain smoke and dust-proof.
- "7—That we ask that the stove shall be operated according to directions and set up with a good flue.

THE ONLY WAY

Many Charleroi Citizens have Discovered It.

Just what to do when the kidneys are affected is a question that concerns both young and old. Weak kidneys neglected in childhood lead to lifelong suffering. People of advanced years, with less vitality, suffer doubly. In youth or age, languor, backache, urinary irregularity, dizziness and nervousness make life a burden.

There is one remedy that acts directly on the kidneys and cures these troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills owe their world-wide fame to the fact that they cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Follow the example of this Charleroi citizen and you will be convinced that his is so.

Mrs. George Ewing, 913 Shady Avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in our family for some time with the best results. We procure our supply at Piper Bros. Drug Store, and it does not take this remedy long to dispose of any attack of kidney trouble. I advise anyone troubled by disordered kidneys to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Wasted Time

Mrs. Newrich was growing accustomed to power. She enjoyed it and was irritated when any one presumed to differ from her in opinion. When the sailing party of which she had been a member landed on the shores of the lake rain soaked and frightened, Mrs. Newrich was the only one who cared to talk.

"It could all have been avoided if that captain had done as I told him," she said between the chattering of her teeth as the party stood huddled under a small shelter.

"When I saw that cloud coming from that corner of the lake I said to him, 'I think you'd better make straight for home and not spend any more time tacking,' but he paid no more attention than as if I hadn't spoken!"—Youth's Companion.

When It Started

"Captain, what time does the boat start?"

"It starts, madam, when I give the word."

"Then I've always had the wrong idea. I thought it started when the engineer pulled a lever or did something. That's you ever so much."—Chicago Tribune.

Child's Allowance

To encourage children to save money give them as many pennies each week as they are years old and allow them to save it. When each has saved $5 put it in a bank and add to it each year. It is a very little beginning, but children with money in a real bank are very desirous of adding more to it. By the time the little folks are grown there will be a good bank account, which will be helpful during their days.

He Didn't Bet

"A man in my county," said a Kansas congressman, "was always anxious to bet on his game of checkers. One time he was about to play a game for $10 with a fellow called Three Fingers Jack. Suddenly one of his friends exclaimed:

"Don't bet, Charlie. Don't you know that fellow wore off two fingers playing checkers? That's why he's called Three Fingers Jack."

"That settled it. The bet was never made. A man who had worn off two fingers by brushing them up and down the checkerboard was too much for my friend."—Kansas City Journal.

A Bitter Disappointment

"When I was in Paris," remarked the collector of curios, "I discovered in a bookstall a volume which I knew at first glance to be of extraordinary value. I could scarcely believe my good luck. Breathless, I inquired the price of the dealer. Just think of it: I could have had that treasure for a song!"

"Well, why didn't you get it?"

"Never could snag a note in my life," cried the collector, bursting into tears.—New York Times.

The Great Diamond Robbery," was the play at the Coyte Theatre last night by the Manhattan Stock company, which is filling a week's engagement here. It is a comedy drama, and the five acts are developed so skillfully that the plot becomes more interesting as it is unfolded.

As "Walter Montrose," the leading masculine role in the cast, Albert S. Veas scored additional honors. His role was admirably and cleverly rendered, and brought out his power and talent as an actor. Miss Zella Dawn sustained the part of Mary Marshall, with grace and power, and won the chief honors of the evening. Miss Birtine Farnsworth as "Polly," the maid, portrayed a sprightly and clever part that pleased the audience. All the other roles were well sustained.

Tonight will be presented "Hearts of the Blue Ridge," a thrilling melodrama of the Southern mountains. A special Thanksgiving matinee will be given tomorrow in addition to the evening bill. At the matinee will be presented "The Road to Ruin," and at night "Lost on the Pacific."

When Children Smoked.
In the seventeenth century in England the practice of juvenile smoking was almost universal, at least according to Jorevin de Rochefort, a French traveler of that period. In an account published in 1671 he gives a description of an evening he spent in Worcester. He was catechized by one of the townsmen as to the habits of the French people. "While we were walking about the town," he writes, "he asked me if it was the custom in France as in England that when the children went to school they carried in their satchel with their books a pipe of tobacco, which their mother took care to fill early in the morning, it serving them instead of breakfast, and that at the accustomed hour every one laid aside his book to light his pipe, the master smoking with them and teaching them how to hold their pipes and draw in their tobacco, thus accustoming them to it from their youths, believing it absolutely necessary for a man's health."

Origin of the Word Academy.
Academeus was a wealthy Greek of Athens who lived several hundred years before the birth of Christ. Among his possessions was a beautiful grove, where young men used to congregate and listen to the teachings of wise men, such as Plato and Socrates. This developed into the school of modern times, and these modern schools take their name "academy" from the old Greek. Academeus. The real meaning of the word academy is a school for boys.

Your Wife's Thanksgiving Present Should Be a Pair of

Red Cross Shoes

Can you imagine a more ideal shoe than one that is absolutely comfortable and is the perfection of style?

The Red Cross Shoe is both.

It is made with an idea and founded on a principle.

The idea is style and comfort in the same shoe.

The principle is to produce for American women a perfect shoe, at a price within reach and reason.

By the special Red Cross tanning process, the sole of the Red Cross Shoe instead of being stiff and rigid is made flexible, it bends with your foot. It gives you a feeling of ease and freedom you can not imagine until you have worn it.

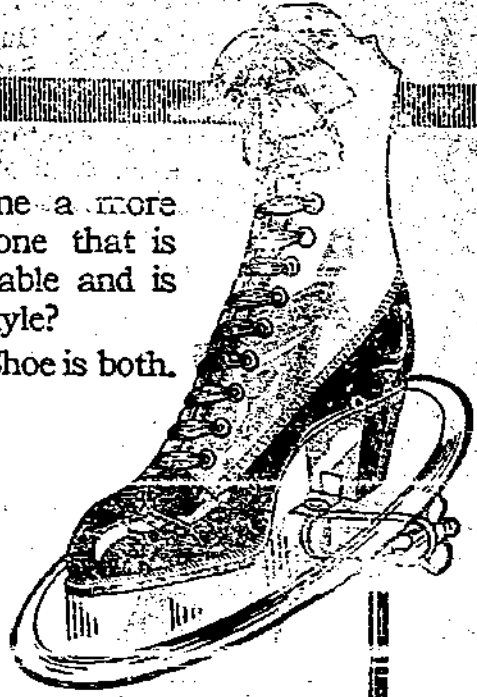

The styles for Fall give your feet that short effect that is so attractive. Come in and try them on.

You do not have to sacrifice style to gain comfort

Oxfords $3.50 and $4.
High Shoes $4 and $5.
